OFF THE TIP

• A two-time Mountain West Coach of the Year and the winningest coach in program history, Ryun Williams enters his 10th season at the helm of the Colorado State women's basketball program in 2021-22. The win against Lipscomb marked the first time since the 2000-01 campaign that the Rams have started 5-0.

• The Preseason Mountain West awards pinned the Rams to finish fourth in the 11-team conference. Hofschild was named to the five-person All-MW team. The Prior Lake, Minn. native started every game last season, averaging 13.4 points and led the MW in assists with 5.4 per game en route to being named the MW Newcomer of the Year and earn an All-MW nod.

• Last time out, the Rams breezed past Lipscomb, 81-55, by draining 16 threes - the fourth-most total in school history. McKenna Hofschild and Petra Farkas each sunk five each with the latter obtaining a career-best 15 points. Upe Atosu set the tone early with 10 points in the second quarter and 16 at the half - both team-high for the season - before finishing with a season-best 21 points.

• McKenna Hofschild was named Mountain West Player of the Week after averaging 19 points per game and leading CSU to a three wins last week. The three-game stretch in which Hofschild scored 57 points is the second-best three-game total from the junior guard who notched 61 points in a trio of games last season that coincidentally earned her MW PoW Week honors (1/11/21) too. She dropped a career-best 27 on Denver and is 9-of-15 from distance in the past two games.

• The Rams host 10th-ranked Louisville (4-1) for CSU's first non-conference ranked matchup since 2004 when No. 8 UCONN visited Moby Arena. The Cardinals were picked to finish second in the ACC Preseason Coaches' Poll and were ranked sixth in the AP preseason poll. UofL has won four consecutive regular season titles and are coming off a NCAA Elite Eight year in which UofL finished 26-4.

A Colorado State Win on Sunday Would Mean...

• The first non-conference ranked win since the #15 Rams defeated #11 Colorado, 81-69, on Nov. 28, 2001.

RAMS NOTEBOOK

From the Line

- Last season, Ryun Williams' squad ranked 19th in the nation in free-throw percentage at 76.3%, which also went down as the second-best percentage in CSU history. Picking up where they left off, CSU is 46 for 57 from the charity strike thus far. Karly Murphy is a perfect 12-of-12, while McKenna Hofschild is 12-of-15. The Rams are second in the Mountain West in FT% (.807) and 16th in the country.

Early Defensive Trends

- The Rams have held all their opponents to 60 points or less and under 35% shooting. CSU boasts the conference's No. 1 scoring defense (49.2 ppg) that checks in at No. 16 nationally. The Rams are No. 1 in field goal defense (31.9%) for the Mountain West and 18th nationally. The 26 blocked shots are the best in the conference with Sydney Mech leading the efforts with 12 blocks that is second in the conference

Protecting the Rock

- The Rams lead the NCAA in turnovers per game at 9.0. CSU's assist to turnover ratio is also second in the country at 1.73. Last season, CSU finished second and fifth, respectively, in those two categories nationally.

Finding the Right Group

- Three different starting lineups occupied the first three games, but the Rams have now gone three straight games with the same starting five. The three constants who have started each game are Hofschild, Atosu and Kinzer. Mech did miss the opener due to injury precaution. More on this on page nine.

Rams Needing Moby Arena Love

- Prior to the season opener, not a single Ram on the 2021-22 roster had played a regular-season home game in front of fans at Moby Arena, which was a span of 623 days. Ironically, junior Kendyll Kinzer was the only outlier as she played in a fan-filled Moby Arena when she was playing for Fresno State.

Williams Defeats DU for Ninth Time

- In head coach Ryun Williams' first matchup against Denver on 12/20/12, the Pioneers got the win. Ever since it has been all CSU and all Williams. In the 2021 edition, the Rams breezed past DU, 67-43, on the back of McKenna Hofschild and the defense collectively. Hofschild poured in a career-best 27 points on 9-of-16 shooting with four 3-pointers. Defensively, CSU held its third opponent to under 50 points and second opponent to shoot less than 30% from the floor. The Pioneers' scoring leader, Meghan Boyd, went scoreless and fellow senior guard, Anna Jackson, to just two points. The explosive 22-8 third quarter broke it open.

Blocks Lead to Win over Oral Roberts

- Entering the fourth quarter, ORU trailed by five, but CSU won the quarter 19-11. For the third-straight game, four Rams finished with double-digit scoring marks led by Karly Murphy's second straight double-double. The Rams collected 11 swats for the fourth-highest total in history with Sydney Mech notching eight for the second-most all-time individually.

Rams Win the Battle vs. the Greeley Opponent

- CSU overcame a 10-point halftime deficit to defeat Northern Colorado. The Rams outscored the Bears 41-20 in the second half. For the second-straight game four Rams scored in double digits. Karly Murphy had a team-high 14 points, while adding 13 rebounds for her fifth-career double-double. Head coach Ryun Williams improved to 7-2 against UNC.

Season Opener vs. Colorado Christian, 77-42

- The Rams dominated the ratio in points from turnovers (24-2), points in the paint (32-8), fast break points (22-3) and bench points (36-16). Eight Rams scored at least five points with four reaching double digits. Freshman Anna Prim had 14 points, becoming the first frosh to lead the team in scoring for a season opener since Lore Devos' 25 in 2017. CSU tallied 24 assists led by Hofschild's 10 -- tying her career-best mark. Last season, CSU had two games with at least 20 assists.

Back to a Normal November & Non-Conference Hustle

- Last year, the Rams played three games in the opening month of play. This year, CSU has six games on the docket for November. Then in the first week of December, CSU goes to their first non-conference tournament since the Navy Classic in 2015. For the Arizona State Classic, CSU will play Harvard and UTSA.

Rams Pinned to finish fourth in Mountain West Preseason Poll

- The preseason Mountain West Awards were released on Wednesday, Oct. 13. In Williams' nine years, he has four first-place finishes, a third-place finish, a fourth place, a sixth place, a 10th place and 11th place.

RAMS NOTEBOOK

Returners

• This 2021-22 Rams return seven student-athletes and two starters from last season's squad. Junior McKenna Hofschild and sophomore Cali Clark account for the two starters, but low post players Karly Murphy and Sydney Mech combined to start 12 games last season and will solidify the Rams in the front court. The other three returners include Petra Farkas, Bengisu Alper and Makayla Hemingway.

Newbies

• New to the Rams' locker room are freshmen Anna Prim, Clara Gomez and Jess Moors in addition to transfers Kendyll Kinzer and Upe Atosu. Moors' is the younger sister of James Moors who is a sophomore on the CSU men's basketball team. Prim and Gomez both hail from Spain and were teammates before on their club team. Kinzer is a familiar face in the conference coming from Fresno State, while Atosu is a graduate transfer from Butler.

Class of 2021 - Freshmen

• On November 15th, 2020, Ryun Williams announced three Rams (Kylee Arzner, of McMinnville, Ore.; Anna Prim of Lleida, Spain; and Clara Gomez of Sabadell, Spain) for the 2021 class. "I couldn't be more excited about this group," Williams said. "All three of these players bring a very competitive nature and skill sets that will really add to the current roster. They are exceptional young women with extremely high character and are very conscientious students."

• Prim and Gomez are from the same Spanish team - Segle XXI - in Barcelona. At 5'6", Prim finished with 7.2 points, 2.4 rebounds, and 1.9 assists in 22 minutes per game last year, while Gomez, a 6-foot forward, came off the bench, contributing 2.5 rebounds and 1.6 points in 10.6 mpg. Since 2018-19, Segle XXI has produced a dozen college players.

• Prim helped Spain to a third place showing in the 2019 FIBA U-16 European Championships, where she averaged 8.7 points, 3.1 rebounds, 3 assists and 1.6 steals per game. She was on Spain's roster for the 2020 FIBA U17 Skills Challenge for another bronze finish. In the last four years, both Prim and Gomez has played in numerous FIBA 3v3 tournaments, including one together in which they finished fourth place. Prim's best finish was runner-up when she teamed up with Nerea Hermosa now of Georgia Tech. Gomez's best finish was also runner-up with Aixa Wone of Ohio State.

• Arzner opted out of attending Colorado State earlier this fall.

Exhibition

• All 12 Rams played at least eight minutes apiece and no Ram played over 27 minutes in the 78-43 win over Chadron State. The guards, Hofschild and Atosu, shared the team high in scoring with 12, while Cali Clark (10), Kendyll Kinzer (10) and Bengisu Alper (11) all reached double digits. Hofschild was the team's leading rebounder with six in what was a tied rebounding battle for the teams at 33-all. She also tacked on a team-best five assists, which is a category she led 16 times last season for the team.

Rams' Defensive Prowess

• In Ryun Williams' nine seasons, the Rams have registered four top-20 final rankings in field goal percentage defense. At one period of time, the Rams have ranked as high as second in the nation.

• The Rams have not been below third in the category within the Mountain West since Williams has been at the helm.

• Colorado State's NCAA Rank in Field Goal Percentage Defense Under Ryun Williams

2020-21 - 90th (.384) (3rd in MW)

2019-20 - 81st (.380) (1st in MW)

2017-18 - 9th (.351) (1st in MW)

2016-17 - 5th (.339) (1st in MW)

2015-16 - 2nd (.330) (1st in MW)

2014-15 - 15th (.354) (1st in MW)

2013-14 - 48th (.375) (1st in MW)

2012-13 - 54th (.363) (2nd in MW)

Ram Departures

• Eight student-athletes departed the Rams over the offseason. Lore Devos, Lauren Brocke, Jamie Bonnarens, Tori Williams and Liah Davis each collected degrees and moved on to their next step in life. Devos is playing overseas, while Bonnarens is using her last season of eligibility at SF Austin. Ellie Boni opted to continue her career at San Jose State, so we'll see her down the road. Maria Torres, Alexis Eberhardt and Katia Stamatiopoulos as of now have retired.

Reminder on Last Season

• Colorado State entered the 2021 Mountain West Women's Basketball Tournament as the No. 3 seed - its highest position since 2017. The Ram team was a far cry from the 2019-20 squad that averaged 60.6 points and concluded 12-18 overall. Head coach Ryun Williams turned it around for the 2020-21 Rams, which finished with a 15-6 overall record and represented the No. 3 scoring offense and No. 5 scoring defense in the conference. Additionally, the Rams held the top spot in the statistical categories of 3-point field goal percentage, defensive rebounds per game and least turnovers per game. Individually, guard McKenna Hofschild led the MW in assists per game and assist-to-turnover ratio, while Karly Murphy was tops in offensive rebounds per game with 3.44.

2020-21 Mountain West Awards

• McKenna Hofschild was named Newcomer of the Year after spending her freshman season at Seton Hall. She joined Ashley Augspurger (1999-00) as the only Rams to receive the honor. Hofschild also earned All-MW honors in addition to Lore Devos who picked up her first career conference accolade.

Busy Brooms

- The Rams swept five opponents in the regular season of 2020-21 including four in the MW (San Diego State, Utah State, Boise State and Wyoming) - a feat last done in 2015-16 when CSU went 31-2 overall and 18-0 in conference play. That year, Ryun Williams' Rams won the MW regular-season title and the MW tournament before advancing to the NCAA tournament.

Keep Up

- Pace and scoring was the biggest change for the 2020-21 Rams as they have scored over 70 points in 14 of 20 games, easily surpassing last year's six. The last time CSU started a season with 14 of 20 games over 70 points was 1998-99 - the 2nd-highest scoring team (79.22 ppg) in CSU history. The Rams finished with an average 77.6 points per game for third in the MW, 16th in the nation and fifth all-time at CSU.

Sharing the Rock

- The Rams were eighth in the nation in asst/turnover ratio (1.38), while leading the MW in the category. CSU's 285 assists and 14.2 apg were third and fourth in the MW, respectively. CSU tied or outassisted their opponent in all but six games. The Rams tallied a season-high 24 assists against Denver at home.

Player of the Week Awards

Mountain West

- Jan. 11, 2021: McKenna Hofschild; Eclipsed the 20-point barrier for the first time in her career and she did so twice
- Dec. 15, 2020: Lore Devos; Recorded three double-doubles in as many tries

College Sports Madness

- Jan. 11, 2021: McKenna Hofschild; Madness High-Major Conference Player of the Week
- Dec. 14, 2020: Lore Devos; Madness High-Major Conference Player of the Week

A Season of Schedule Adjustments was 2020-21

- The season saw its first tip-off on Nov. 25th, marking the latest beginning of a season since 1975-76's December 3rd. The 21 games was the lowest total games played since 1977-78, which completed at 19 games.
- The altered Mountain West schedule featured 10 two-game series with five home dates and five away opponents. The plan reduced the regular season travel schedule by four weeks to help mitigate potential virus exposures. With cancellations in the final week of the season, the Rams had to play four games in seven days.

Notes on the Ball Coach

- Ryun Williams has won 100 conference games, by far the most in program history. Former CSU head coach Tom Collen is the closest with 56 conference wins.
- Williams also ranks in the top 10 in Mountain West history in terms of win percentage in conference games (63.3 percent, 100-58).
- Ryun Williams' 10th season as CSU basketball coach makes him the longest-tenured head coach in program history. Greg Williams served as head coach for seven seasons from 1990-97
- Williams was not in attendance on the sidelines during the season's opening two games due to COVID-19 contact tracing in 2020-21. The week up-to and after the games, Williams delivered messages through zoom. Nevertheless, the wins get credited to Williams and the CCU win marked No. 100 for inside Moby Arena. During the contests, assistant coach Rico Burkett acted as head coach.

#42 KARLY MURPHY

Gr. • Forward • 6-1 • River Falls, Wisc. (Wisconsin-Green Bay/River Falls HS)

2021-22 Highlights

- Team's third leading scorer and top rebounder thru five games despite being fifth in minute per game
- Has been the team's leading scorer twice this season and four last season
- Perfect from the free-throw line (12-12). Since becoming a Ram, she is 48 for 51.
- Recorded back-to-back double-doubles against Northern Colorado and Oral Roberts, while being one off in tying her career-best rebound mark both times
- The 49 total rebound thru the first five games is the best start to the season in that category over her career. Better yet, it is the best five-game stretch. (Previous was 38, 2020-21).
- The 18 points she scored vs. Oral Roberts is the third-most she has had as a Ram after her 19-point performances against Utah State and Air Force last season
