- Brooks has had at least one such game in each of his six seasons in Blacksburg, including four each during the 2017-18 and 2018-19 seasons.

LISA LESLIE IS WATCHING

- For the second consecutive season, C Elizabeth Kitley is on the Lisa Leslie Award Watch List, which honors the nation's top center. In 2020-21 she played her way onto the list and was a finalist in March for the accolade.
- Now in her junior season, Kitley is a Top 10 finalist once again.

TECH EARNS VALIDATION AFTER SENSATIONAL 2020-21 SEASON

- For the first time since 1999, VT is ranked in the preseason AP Poll, coming in at No. 24.
- It is the first time that the Hokies have been ranked since January 23, 2017, which was Coach Brooks' first season in charge in Blacksburg.
- The Hokies not only earned the respect of the national media, but they were voted fourth in the preseason ACC Poll, representing the highest preseason predicted order of finish for the program since joining the conference in 2004. Tech has never earned the four seed at the ACC Tournament, although they did finish T-4 in 2019-20 when they set a program record with 11 ACC victories.

DANCING AGAIN

- Tech ended a 15-year drought with its 2021 NCAA Tournament appearance, the program's 10th overall.
- In a unique Tournament played in the greater San Antonio region, the Hokies, a seven seed matchup up with Marquette in the first round. The Hokies earned a 70-63 victory behind 23 points and eight rebounds from Elizabeth Kitley and timely 3-point shooting from Da'Ja Green who made her only two shots of the game. Tech led by 15 with 5:28 to play in the game but the Eagles made a furious rally to cut the lead to just three in the final minute before Tech put the game away from the free throw line.
- Tech was beaten 90-48 in the second round by defending NCAA Champs Baylor who shot 50% from the field and had a +30 advantage on the glass. In that game Georgia Amore led the Hokies with 18 points on 4-for-9 shooting from beyond the arc.

KITLEY A DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE

- After registering 13 her sophomore season, Kitley owns 12 already this season, a mark that is tops in the league.
- Her 31 career double-doubles are second most all-time at VT.

CAYLA THE KING OF THE LONG BALL

- Junior G Cayla King scored 60 3-pointers last season and upped her scoring average to 8.7 points per game.
- For her career, 140 of her 156 field goals have come from beyond the arc where she shoots better than 38%.
- After not registering a game of 10+ points in her freshman season, King eclipsed double figures nine times in 2020-21. In those games VT was 8-1, with the only loss coming at No. 2 NC State by two points.

SHEPPARD'S CAREER SENIOR SEASON

- Aisha Sheppard scored 20 or more points in nine contests last season, second-most in the conference behind only ACC Player of the Year Dana Evans. Like Evans, she scored in double figures in every regular season contest prior to playing the conference tournament in Greensboro.
- Her Honorable Mention All-America nod made her the first Hokie to earn the accolade since 1999 and just the fourth overall.

GREGG MAKES AN IMPACT OFF THE BENCH

- F D'asia Gregg suffered several DNP's (coaches decision) early in the 2020-21 season as she became acclimated with the Hokies' system on the court.
- Coach Brooks later praised Gregg, affectionately called D-Mo, for her patience and perseverance. She is frequently the loudest player on the bench, calling out plays, screens and cheering on her teammates.
- She began to play a greater role on the court in the middle of the season and ended up securing her first career double-double in the ACC Tournament victory over Miami with 13 points and 10 rebounds.
- VT is 6-2 when D-Moe plays 20+ minutes.
- VT is 8-1 when D-Moe grabs 5+ rebounds.

JUNIOR TAYLOR GEIMAN BACK ON THE FLOOR FOR BROOKS AND CO.

- Hanover, Pennsylvania native Taylor Geiman has played in just 19 career games, suffering season-ending knee injuries in both of her seasons in Blacksburg.
- Back healthy, the G/F is poised to make an impact once again on the court for the Hokies.
- Praised as a 'Swiss Army' knife by Coach Brooks, Geiman can play nearly any position on the floor.

EMILY LYTLE, A FAMILIAR FACE NOW IN MAROON AND ORANGE

- Graduate student Emily Lytle joined the Hokies in the summer of 2021 after a stellar career at nearby Liberty. While with the Flames, she faced the Hokies three times.
- In those contests, all VT victories, Lytle averaged 15.3 points and 3.6 rebounds.

BIOGRAPHY IN BULLETS

- Kenny Brooks was named the seventh head women's basketball coach in Virginia Tech women's basketball history on March 28, 2016 and concluded his fifth season at the helm of the Hokies' program in 2021. He won his 100th game as a Hokie at the 2021 ACC Tournament with a 72-64 victory over Miami.
- Since Brooks' arrival in Blacksburg, the Hokies have enjoyed five consecutive winning seasons, and made a return to the NCAA Tournament in 2021 after a 15-year absence.
- Tech's 2020-21 season was a special one in several regards, with the Hokies winning their First Round NCAA Tournament game against Marquette, the team securing the program's first win over an AP top four team, a program record six-game winning streak in ACC play, and for the first time, two student-athletes were honored as First Team All-ACC performers.
- The Hokies set numerous program records in 2019-20, most notably winning 11 ACC games for the first time and earning the five seed at the conference's tournament.
- To begin his tenure, Brooks and the Hokies reeled off 15 straight wins to open the 2016-17 season, Tech's strongest start to a season in 18 years. Behind that strong start, Tech climbed to as high as No. 15 in the AP Poll.
- Brooks has ushered in a new era of uptempo basketball at Virginia Tech, as his Hokies have reset the program scoring record twice and surpassed the mark for 3-pointers made.
- During his time in Blacksburg, Brooks has recruited and developed All-ACC performer Taylor Emery, who set the single season scoring record in 2017-18 at 667 points. She also scored the most field goals in a single campaign with 236. She became the fastest player to 1,000 points (55 games) and was the first Hokie to earn first team All-ACC honors when she did so in 2019.
- Five Hokies have reached 1,000 points since Brooks joined Tech including All-ACC performers Emery, Regan Magarity, Aisha Sheppard and Elizabeth Kitley. Magarity graduated in 2019 with her name imprinted all throughout the record book, with over 1,600 points and an ACC record 1,299 rebounds.
- Brooks joined the Hokies after an impressive 14-seasons at his alma mater, James Madison. He compiled a record of 337-122 (.756) making him the winningest coach in JMU program history. He guided the Dukes to 11 consecutive postseason appearances that included six NCAA bids and five trips to the WNIT.
- Over an 11-year stretch (2005-16), Brooks' squads never won fewer than 24 games, averaging 26.3 wins per year. The Dukes won three consecutive CAA championships under Brooks' tutelage (2014-16) and captured a total of five conference titles.
- During those final three seasons in Harrisonburg, Brooks and the Dukes compiled an impressive 60-3 record in conference play.
- He was named CAA Coach of the Year for a fourth time in 2015-16, while his student-athletes also garnered CAA Player and Rookie of the Year honors.

- Under Brooks, JMU tallied six CAA Players of the Year, three Rookies of the Year and two Defensive Players of the Year. The Dukes also recorded 31 All-CAA selection, 11 Defensive Team and 10 All-Rookie Team selections during his tenure.
- The Waynesboro, Virginia native has coached four WNBA Draft picks; Tamera Young, Lauren Okafor and Jazmon Gwathmey from JMU and Regan Magarity from Tech (2019).
- BA 1992 graduate of JMU, Brooks played for three seasons under legendary coach Lefty Driessel and made two NIT appearances while earning a degree in business management. He began his coaching career as a part-time assistant for the 1993-94 JMU men's squad that won the CAA Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.
- After four seasons as an assistant for the men's program at VMI (1994-98), he moved back to his alma mater as a men's assistant from 1998-2002. He was named interim women's head coach on Dec. 6, 2002 before taking over those duties on a full-time basis on March 21, 2003.

Lytle starred at Liberty for the past three years scoring 1,153 points and shooting better than 42% from the field. Adept at the long ball, Lytle scored 171 3's during her time with the Flames.

"I choose Tech because I've played against them the past three years and I've always admired their style of play," Lytle said of signing with the Hokies. "I know that Coach Brooks is a family man, a man of faith and I felt at peace throughout the whole recruiting process at Virginia Tech. I am excited to start this next chapter!"

Lytle, a 5-foot-11 guard/forward from Memphis, led the Flames to a 19-8 record in 2020-21, earning First Team All-Conference honors after averaging 14.7 points per game and 5.0 rebounds, both career highs.

For her career in Lynchburg, Lytle started in 86 of 90 games played, scored 12.8 points per game and pulled down 4.4 rebounds. She has a career shooting percentage of 42%, which includes 35% from 3-point range.

Lytle suited up against the Hokies in each of the last three seasons, scoring 13, 19 and 14 points respectively in those contests.

Her name is plastered across the Flame record books as she occupies 13th all-time in scoring, owns the single season record for 3-pointers with 64 in 2019, her 39.1% mark from beyond the arc in 2021 is the best for a single campaign and her 34 consecutive made free throws in 2020 are also a program best.
