» MATCH NOTES

DUKE VS. LOUISVILLE

- » Duke and Louisville are set for their eighth all-time matchup with the Blue Devils leading the series, 2-0-5.
- » The series began with four consecutive draws before the Blue Devils strung together back-to-back wins over the Cardinals in the 2017 and 2018 seasons.
- » Duke's last result versus Louisville was a 1-1 draw after 110 minutes of play at Lynn Stadium on Oct. 18, 2019. Then-sophomore Mackenzie Pluck helped set up a penalty kick opportunity for the Blue Devils that Ella Stevens cashed in on to give Duke an early advantage over the 14th-ranked Cardinals.
- » Louisville is one of three ACC teams that Duke has never lost to, along with Pittsburgh and Syracuse.

SCOUTING THE CARDINALS

- » Louisville heads into its Senior Night against the Blue Devils with a 7-6-2 overall record and a 3-5-1 mark in ACC matches.
- » After jumping out to a 3-1-0 start in conference play, the Cardinals have gone 0-4-1 in their last five games, with two of those setbacks coming on the road against ranked opponents.
- » Louisville drew with Clemson on the road on Oct. 24, tying the match at 1-1 just 20 seconds into the second half.
- » The Cardinals feature a well-balanced attack as 12 players have gotten on the scoresheet this season.
- » Freshman Julia Simon leads the team with four goals and 11 points. The forward has found the back of the net in two of Louisville's last three matches.
- » Fellow newcomer Nina Nicosia has dished out a team-leading four assists to go with three goals.
- » Graduate student Gabby Kouzelos has started all 15 matches in goal, collecting 63 saves (.708 save pct.) with two shutouts.

LAST TIME OUT: DUKE 1, FLORIDA STATE 0

- » Graduate student Tess Boade scored in the 27th minute and Duke held Florida State scoreless for the first time this season in a 1-0 home victory over the top-ranked Seminoles on Sunday, Oct. 24.
- » It marked Duke's first win over the No. 1 team in the United Soccer Coaches poll since Oct. 9, 2005 against North Carolina.
- » The Blue Devils also picked up their first win over Florida State since Oct. 8, 2017. Duke had gone 0-4-1 over its previous five contests versus the Seminoles, not scoring a goal in that stretch.
- » Boade's goal was set up by an intelligent play from freshman Michelle Cooper, who let an Emily Royson pass roll by her to divert two FSU defenders away from Boade.
- » The Highlands Ranch, Colo., native got the ball at the top of the box and fired a left-footed shot that handcuffed goalkeeper Mia Justus before trickling just over the line and in.
- » Ruthie Jones made four saves in goal as the Blue Devils earned their ninth shutout of the season and their fourth consecutive clean sheet.
- » The result marked Florida State's first loss in regulation in its last 32 matches dating back to the 2019 NCAA Tournament.
- » Duke concluded its regular-season home slate with a 9-1-0 record at Koskinen Stadium.
- » The win also came on Duke's Senior Day, as each of the team's five seniors - Delaney Graham, Marykate McGuire, Mackenzie Pluck, Sydney Simmons and Holland Stam - were recognized in a pregame ceremony.

STEPPING IT UP ON DEFENSIVE END

- » The Blue Devils' seven goals allowed are the fewest by an ACC team this season.
- » Duke's 0.45 goals against average leads the conference and ranks fourth nationally.
- » The Blue Devils have recorded nine shutouts, which are the third-most in the ACC despite playing fewer matches than each of the top-10 ranking teams.
- » Duke has allowed more than one goal in a match just once this season -- a 2-1 double-overtime loss to NC State on Oct. 7.
- » Duke's seven goals yielded are also tied for the third-fewest through 15 matches in program history. The 2017 team also gave up seven goals at the 15-game mark, while the 2011 squad allowed five and the 2005 team allowed six.
- » Graduate student Caitlin Cosme, sophomore Katie Groff and sophomore Emily Royson anchor the Duke back line and have each logged over 1,000 minutes this season.

A RECORD RANKING

- » Duke is ranked No. 2 in the United Soccer Coaches national poll this week, marking a program-record 26 consecutive polls that the Blue Devils have held a spot in the top 10.
- » That streak, which dates back to Oct. 6, 2020, surpasses the 25 straight polls that listed Duke in the top 10 from 1992-95.
- » This week's poll marks the second time this season Duke is ranked No. 2. The Blue Devils also moved up to No. 2 after their win at North Carolina on Sept. 17, which was then the highest ranking for Duke since Oct. 31, 2017.
- » In the NCAA's Rating Percentage Index (RPI), which is designed to rank teams based on their strength of schedule, Duke is currently rated as the No. 1 team in the nation.

DUKE ON THE ROAD

- » Duke enters Thursday's match having won seven of its last nine road contests.
- » The Blue Devils are 9-4-1 in their last 14 road games dating back to the start of the 2020-21 season and have outscored their opponents 24-11 in that stretch.
- » Duke is 3-1-1 away from home this season. The Blue Devils have given up just two goals in their five road matches.
- » The Blue Devils' last road match was a 2-0 win at Wake Forest on Oct. 15. Duke scored twice in the opening 22 minutes and was in control the rest of the way, allowing Wake just one shot on target.

BLUE DEVILS SWEEP ACC WEEKLY AWARDS

- » Coming off of two home wins over ranked opponents, graduate student Tess Boade was named the ACC Co-Offensive Player of the Week while sophomore Emily Royson was tapped the Defensive Player of the Week.
- » Boade collected an assist on Michelle Cooper's game-winner in overtime against No. 15 Notre Dame on Oct. 21. She sent a perfect through ball from the midfield to just inside the 18-yard box that Cooper was able to track down and dribble around a charging goalkeeper before burying it in the back of the net.
- » Three days later versus top-ranked Florida State, Boade tallied a game-winner of her own, scoring on a left-footed strike from the top of the box in the 27th minute.
- » The Highlands Ranch, Colo., native was also named the TopDrawerSoccer.com National Player of the Week.
- » Royson picked up her first career Defensive Player of the Week honor after logging 181 combined minutes on Duke's back line over the two wins.
- » She helped the Blue Devils limit Notre Dame to just one shot on target on Thursday before notching her third assist of the season on Boade's goal versus the Seminoles on Sunday.
- » The Toms River, N.J., native has played every minute in Duke's last nine matches, totaling 851 minutes in that stretch.
- » Of the three instances in which a team has swept the conference's weekly awards this season, two have come from the Blue Devils, as Boade and Ruthie Jones were named the Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week, respectively, on Sept. 17.

RUTHIE AT THE READY

- » Ruthie Jones took over the starting goalkeeper duties on a rainy night against Virginia on Sept. 17, 2020 and has since emerged as one of the top players in the nation at her position.
- » The Charlotte, N.C., native has 37 saves through 15 matches this season. Her 0.48 goals against average currently leads the ACC, while her .841 save percentage ranks second and her six complete-game shutouts rank third.
- » She enters Thursday's match at Louisville having not allowed a goal in her last 361 minutes of play -- the ninth-longest streak in program history.
- » Over her last 20 starts dating back to April 2, 2021, Jones has given up two goals on just one occasion while recording 10 complete-game shutouts. The Blue Devils are 15-2-3 in that stretch.
- » She collected three saves in the Sept. 2 win over Stanford, including two key stops in the first half.
- » Jones was sensational in the win at North Carolina on Sept. 17, making six stops -- including three in the opening 25 minutes -- to hold the Tar Heels scoreless for the first time since December of 2019.
- » Her effort in Chapel Hill earned ACC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second time in her career (April 11, 2021).
- » She followed up with two impressive road performances -- a five-save effort at No. 7 Virginia on Sept. 23, and a two-save outing that included a breakaway stop in overtime at Virginia Tech on Sept. 26.
- » As a sophomore in 2020-21, Jones had 12 clean-sheet performances and posted a goals against average of 0.70 with 56 total saves.

Robbie Church

Head Coach

21st Season

Pfeiffer, '80

Since being named the head coach of the Duke women's soccer program on July 9, 2001, Robbie Church has built the Blue Devils into a national powerhouse, making three NCAA College Cup appearances and capturing a pair of ACC championships over his 20 seasons at the helm. Now in his 36th season as a head coach, which covers both the men's and women's game, Church has amassed a 451-247-74 (.632) record, while going 342-177-69 (.639) in 25-plus years as a women's head coach.

The 2011 and 2017 ACC Coach of the Year concluded his 20th season in Durham in 2020-21 and currently owns a 268-133-60 (.646) record with 89 wins over the last six full seasons, guiding the Blue Devils to the NCAA College Cup twice in that span. The Duke women's soccer leader looks to continue the success Duke has had over the last two decades that includes 18 NCAA Tournament appearances and three trips to the NCAA College Cup in 2011, 2015 and 2017. Also in that stretch, Church has guided the Blue Devils to 10 national seeds in the NCAA Tournament, 12 times reaching the Round of 16 and advancing to Quarterfinal play nine times.

Church led the Blue Devils to a record of 12-5-4 in the unprecedented 2020-21 campaign, capped with the program's 26th postseason appearance. Duke navigated the uncertainties of the COVID-19 pandemic, and played in competitive spring matches for the first time in program history. The Blue Devils went 4-2-2 in conference play in the fall, with two wins over a top-five Clemson team. Duke advanced to the semifinals of the conference tournament in November, and three student-athletes -- Sophie Jones (First Team), Delaney Graham (Third) and Taylor Mitchell (Third) -- earned All-ACC honors. After an elongated winter break, the Blue Devils returned to action in early March, and went on to win five of eight games in the spring campaign, including two one-goal victories in the NCAA Tournament. Church picked up his 250th win as head coach of the Duke program in a 3-1 win at Miami on Nov. 1, 2020.

Church, who replaced former head coach Bill Hempen in 2001, is only the second coach in Duke's 29-year history. Over the past numerous years, Church has brought in recruiting classes rated in the top 25 by Soccerbuzz.com and TopDrawerSoccer.com - third in 2006, seventh in 2002, eighth in 2003 and 2007, 20th in 2004 and 22nd in 2008. The 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 classes were listed as one of the top in the nation as well, including the No. 2 class in 2014, No. 6 class in 2015, No. 4 in 2016 and No. 5 in 2017 by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

Church earned his 100th career victory as a women's head coach against Florida International on Sept. 20, 2002, and collected his 200th career victory (men and women) on Sept. 26, 2003, against Davidson. With a 2-1 win over California in the 2010 NCAA Tournament, Church posted his 200th win as a women's head coach.

Before arriving at Duke, Church compiled a 21-19-1 record in two seasons as head coach at Vanderbilt. He led the Commodores to the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Tournament semifinals in each of his two seasons.

In 1994, Church became the first head coach at UNC Charlotte, a position he held until 1998. While at Charlotte, he guided the 49ers to a 66-30-10 mark in five seasons, including the school's first NCAA Tournament bid in 1998 and three Conference USA titles.

Church coached men's college teams at Lynn University (1990), East Carolina (1982-84) and Belmont Abbey (1985-89), where he also served as associate athletic director.

Church began his career as a head coach at East Carolina from 1982-84. In 1984, he was a men's assistant coach at Duke under John Rennie. After a one-year stint with the Blue Devils, Church accepted the head coach and associate athletic director position at Belmont Abbey.

Over the next five years, he led the Crusaders to a 69-35-1 record, while graduating 90 percent of his players. Included in that stretch were two Carolinas Conference Championships and an NAIA National Tournament appearance in 1989.

Church moved on to the College of Boca Raton, now Lynn University, in 1990, leading the men's team to a 17-4-2 mark. In one season, he guided Boca Raton to the District 25 Championship and the NAIA national finals.

A four-year starter at Pfeiffer College, Church was his team's leading scorer and MVP as a senior. He was selected NAIA All-South Region, was an All-Conference performer, and was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. He graduated from Pfeiffer with a bachelor of arts degree in health and physical education in 1981. Church went on to earn his master's degree in health and physical education from the University of South Carolina in 1985.
