VISION TO SEE THE TREASURED PAST

(Most recent)

Michigan State’s John Freitag scored the clinching goal in the 93rd minute to lift the Spartans to a 2-1 overtime victory against No. 4 Louisville in the NCAA Championship second round match at Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium. The Cardinals ended their season with an 11-5-3 record overall while winning the program’s first ACC Championship title.

The Cardinals ended their season with an 11-5-3 record overall after Sunday’s loss, while MSU (12-4-4) advanced to a third round tilt at No. 13 Georgetown next weekend. Despite the early exit in the NCAA Championship, the 2018 season was a successful one for Louisville, highlighted by the program’s first ACC Championship title.

OPENING KICKS

• The Cardinals are 17-19-4 all-time in season openers. Louisville is unbeaten in their last six season openers.

• UofL vs CSU pits two first-year head coaches against one another, the only matchup of two first-year head coaches on opening day in Division I.

• The Cardinals were picked to finish second in the ACC Atlantic Division in a vote by ACC coaches. The Cards also received a first place vote.

• Junior forward Emil Elveroth was named to the watch list for the 2019 MAC Hermann Trophy, which honors the United Soccer Coaches Division I National Player of the Year.

• The Cardinals are 37-13-13 all-time at Lynn Stadium, including 11-7-6 against ranked foes and 5-3-1 in NCAA Championship matches.

• Louisville has advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship five times in the last nine seasons, and has made the NCAA Tournament 11 of the last 12 years.

• The 2019 roster features 27 total players with 10 international student-athletes. Those 10 players from outside the US accounted for nine different nations. It does not include two players who moved to the US after being born in Diallo Irakoze (Tanzania) and Haji Abdikadir (Kenya).

• A total of 10 different states are represented in Louisville’s 17 players from the US.

WHY CARDINALS?...

Louie the Cardinal is the mascot of the University of Louisville. The Cardinal was chosen as the mascot after 1913, selected because the northern cardinal is the state bird of Kentucky. The school colors of black and red were adopted later.

Louie appears at university sporting events, notably skydiving into Cardinal Stadium for each home football game and rappelling in from the ceiling of the basketball arena. He also attends other community events during the year. He is considered a part of the “Spirit Groups” and is a member of the Cheerleading team. In 2004, the Cardinal Bird was presented with the National Cheerleaders Association’s Most Collegiate Mascot award. On occasion, Louie will travel over to the school marching band’s section to conduct the players from the band’s podium.

The Cardinal Bird mascot originated at the request of the marching band. The first student to portray the Bird was Dick Dyson and the paper mache costume was created by students of the Speed School of Engineering. In the 1980’s, the costume was made of long red fake fur with a round belly and large yellow feet. In the late 90’s, the costume head changed to more closely configure with the printed logo, losing the belly to add shoulder pads for a more fit and toned athletic appearance. In its latest entity, Louie was redesigned displaying a noticeably slimmer figure and wider smile in 2016. He also wears a Louisville basketball jersey, which he switches out for a football, baseball or corresponding sport jersey. He can wear UofL jerseys that match whatever colors the team is wearing that day. His wardrobes also include special uniforms, such as a Military Appreciation Day uniform. The redesign was conducted by the athletic department’s marketing staff, with the objective of having better line of vision, more flexibility and mobility for the Bird while keeping its iconic look.

The school colors - cardinal red, black and white - were adopted at the suggestion of Mrs. John L. Patterson.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE...

Louisville is a community of nearly 1 million people with a robust economy, a vibrant arts scene, a nationally ranked public school system and a rich history infused with Southern hospitality. Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, America’s 17th largest city boasts a cost of living that is substantially lower than the national average.

The University of Louisville is a state-supported research university located in Kentucky’s largest metropolitan area. It was a municipally supported public institution for many decades prior to joining the university system in 1970. The University has three campuses. The 287-acre Belknap Campus is three miles from downtown Louisville and houses eight of the university’s 12 colleges and schools. The Health Sciences Center is situated in downtown Louisville’s medical complex and houses the university’s health-related programs and the University of Louisville Hospital. The 243-acre Shelby Campus is located in eastern Jefferson County.

On April 3, 1798, eight men declared their intention to establish the Jefferson Seminary in Louisville and called upon their fellow citizens to join them in pledging funds for land, buildings, and teachers. Occurring a few weeks after the Kentucky legislature had chartered this academy and several others in the new state, this event marked the beginning of an advanced level of education for the young people of a frontier settlement barely two decades old. Near the end of the eighteenth century these early Louisvillians took the first steps on a journey that would link them with succeeding generations to the modern University of Louisville in the twenty-first century.

Since 2000 Louisville is the only NCAA team to win a BCS bowl game; to appear in the NCAA Division I men’s basketball Final Four, the College World Series, and the NCAA Division I women’s basketball Final Four; and to finish as runner-up in the Men’s soccer College Cup. It is one of only six schools that has appeared more than once in each of the following events—a BCS bowl game, the men’s and women’s basketball Final Fours, and the College World Series—and Louisville’s span of seven school years (2006–07 to 2012–13) is the shortest among these schools. It is the first school ever to win a BCS bowl game, appear in the men’s and women’s basketball Final Fours, and appear in the College World Series in the same school year, doing so in 2012–13.

FROM THE ‘VILLE TO THE MLS...

The Cardinals have been successful in sending players into professional soccer and specifically Major League Soccer. Since the 2012 draft, Louisville has produced six first round selections in the MLS SuperDraft, including Andrew Farrell as the No. 1 overall pick in 2013. The Cardinals have also had two or more selections in the first two rounds of the SuperDraft six times, highlighted by a school record four selections in 2012. Overall, 21 players from the UofL have been chosen in the MLS SuperDraft all-time and another in the supplemental draft.

PRESEASON RECOGNITION...

Emil Elveroth and Bradley Sample earn preseason recognition by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

Elveroth was named to the Preseason Men’s Best XI Third Team. He is one of only two ACC forwards to be recognized on the list.

Sample was named as one of eight first-year players that should come in and make an impact in their first year of college soccer.

ELVEROTH MAC HERMANN TROPHY WATCH LIST...

Junior forward Emil Elveroth has been named to the watch list for the 2019 MAC Hermann Trophy presented by World Wide Technology, as announced by the United Soccer Coaches and the Missouri Athletic Club.

The MAC Hermann Trophy is the most prestigious individual award in college soccer. It has been presented annually since 1967 and honors the United Soccer Coaches National Players of the Year in NCAA Division I men’s and women’s soccer based on voting conducted by NCAA Division I coaches.

Elveroth and 35 other men’s players were named to the watch list. He is one of only two forwards on the list from the ACC.

Elveroth begins his first season with the Cardinals after spending the last two years at UNCW. Last season he earned first team All-Atlantic Region honors and was named to the All-CAA First Team. In 20 games, he scored 11 goals and had five assists for 27 points. He also had five game-winners.

As a freshman, Elveroth started in 19 of 20 games scoring five goals with two assists. He led the CAA with four game-winning goals. He was named a Second-Team NCCSIA All-State selection. He was also a member of All-Colonial Athletic Association Third Team while earning CAA All-Rookie Team accolades and CAA All-Tournament team.

MAKING THE ROUNDS...

Of the current 24 Division I soccer conferences, Louisville has taken on at least one school in all but one of those leagues. The only remaining conferences the Cardinals have yet to play is the Northeast Conference.

SEASON OPENERS...

The Cardinals are 17-19-4 all-time in season openers. UofL is unbeaten in their last six season openers. Louisville played to a scoreless tie against Butler in 2016. The Cards last loss in a season opener came in came on August 26, 2012 when they fell to No. 9 Maryland 3-0. Louisville would get revenge on Maryland two years later when they knocked off the then-No. 2 Terrapins 1-0 on Aug. 29, 2014.

I WANT MY CARDS TV...

ACC Network (ACCN) the new, 24/7 national platform which launched on August 22, will kick off its men’s soccer coverage this fall. ACCN will showcase the ACC’s men’s soccer programs with unprecedented national television coverage. The University of Louisville men’s soccer team is scheduled for three matches on ACCN; September 24 against Georgetown, October 25 at UNC, and against Wake Forest on November 1.

The Cardinals will also be featured on national TV on Fox Sports when they host Virginia Tech on Sept. 20.

The seven other home matches for the Cards will be available on ACCNX via the ESPN App. Additionally, UofL’s three road ACC games will be available on ACCNX.

DAWN OF A NEW DAY...

John Michael Hayden, a Louisville native who has served as an assistant coach with the Cardinals for four seasons, including each of the last three, was named head coach of the University of Louisville men’s soccer program on Dec. 27, 2018.

Hayden became the fifth head coach in the history of the UofL men’s soccer program, which completed its 40th season in 2018. During his four seasons as an assistant coach with the Cardinals (2012, 2016-18), the program accumulated a 52-19-11 record overall with four NCAA Championship berths, three Elite Eight appearances and two conference championships.

Hayden and the Cardinals will take on a pair of low first-year head coaches during the regular season. UofL opens the season against Cleveland State’s new leader Sinisa Ubiparipovic. The Cards will also take on new Belmont head coach David Costa.

Louisville also played an exhibition game against UAB and their new head coach Jeff Kinney.

ACC PRESEASON POLL...

Louisville was picked to finish second in the ACC Atlantic Division in 2019 in a vote of the conference’s 12 head coaches. The Cardinals totaled 48 points in the ACC voting, as coaches were not allowed to vote for their own teams.

Wake Forest was chosen as the favorite in the Atlantic Division. North Carolina was tabbed as the favorite in the Coastal Division and was selected to win the league championship. The Tar Heels North Carolina received nine of the 12 first-place votes to win the 2019 championship.

CARDS WIN FIRST ACC CHAMPIONSHIP...

Cherif Dieye scored the only goal of the match and goalkeeper Jake Gelovatch anchored a strong defensive performance as Louisville clinched its first ACC Championship title with the 1-0 victory against No. 4 North Carolina at Sahlen’s Stadium at WakeMed Soccer Park on Nov. 11.

Making their second appearance in five years in the title match of the ACC Championship, the Cardinals earned their second conference tournament championship in school history adding the latest triumph to the 2010 Big East championship. The victory culminated an impressive run to the title for Louisville, which allowed just one goal in wins over No. 18 Notre Dame, No. 1 Wake Forest and No. 4 North Carolina in a span of eight days.

The fourth-seeded Cardinals struck for the clinching goal in the 29th minute when Dieye scored inside the far left post from 12 yards out for his fifth goal of the season. The decisive sequence started with a long pass into the box to Izaijah Jennings, who delivered a short pass to his right to Tate Schmitt. The senior moved the ball to Dieye, who worked a right-footed shot around a defender and past the goalkeeper for his 12th career goal. Schmitt, named as the Tournament MVP, registered his team-leading eighth assist of the season and the 17th in his four-year career.

Five Cardinals were named to the ACC Men’s Soccer Championship All-Tournament Team as Schmitt was joined by Dieye, Gelovatch, Lamine Conte and Ziyad Fekri. Schmitt had a goal and two assists in the three ACC Championship matches en route to earning the MVP honor.

After more than a decade of playing in the Cardinal Park Track and Soccer Stadium, the University of Louisville men’s and women’s soccer teams moved into the premiere soccer venue in the country in 2014.

Dr. Mark & Cindy Lynn Stadium, a $18.5 million, state-of-the-art soccer stadium features seating capacity for more than 5,300 and includes a 15,500-square-foot training center.

The natural turf field is surrounded by chairback seating for 2,300 in the main grandstand, bleacher seating for 900 in the east end zone and two berms, which can accommodate 2,100. It is the second-largest on-campus facility project the Cardinals have built.

In addition to the pitch, the complex surrounding the area is fully loaded to ensure Louisville’s student-athletes enjoy their experiences. The building features separate team locker rooms in addition to their opponents, along with coaches’ locker rooms. When they are not in competition or training, the men’s and women’s teams have the ability to spend time in their own lounge areas located in their respective locker rooms.

Also, Cardinal student-athletes and coaches will be provided an 830-square-foot meeting/video room for scouting purposes.

When Louisville is practicing or warming up before a match, they can take advantage of an approximately 700-square-foot indoor warm-up area designed to give the Cardinals the maximum space for training.

For fans entering arguably the best soccer stadium in the country, they are greeted by six ticket windows, staffed by Louisville’s ticket office, to help limit long wait times. Upon gaining admission, fans will be greeted by the main concession stand that features up to 14 queues or they can stroll around the concourse that extends around the end lines.

Housed atop the grandstand at midfield, the press box has ample amounts of room and amenities to accommodate those covering the game. Adjacent to the press box is a donor suite, along with a separate television suite, radio suite, an area for the media as well as an operations room.

The Cardinals are 37-13-13 all-time at Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium, including 11-7-6 against ranked foes. Louisville hosted NCAA Championship matches at Lynn Stadium during the 2014, 2016, 2017 and 2018 seasons.

Additional Features:
- Spectators’ view from each angle of the field was modeled after Major League Soccer’s Sporting KC’s stadium, which was built in 2011.
- Each individual locker - there are 33 total in each locker room - boasts power outlets and the men’s and women’s rooms each will showcase flat-screen televisions and a Cardinal bird in the ceilings.
- For improved security, student-athletes and coaches will have to go through finger print access points to gain admission into the facility.
- Over 300 feet of dasher boards will be on display along the north side of the pitch.
