2018 Review Notes

Caroline Blalock and Emily Howell Named IWLCA All-Region Honors

The IWLCA named Caroline Blalock and Emily Howell to the 2018 Division I Region team. Blalock and Howell earned second team honors for their performances throughout the year, marking the ninth consecutive season that the Cardinals had multiple players named to the All-Region team.

A team captain as a freshman, Blalock led the Cards in seven statistical categories, including goals with 43 and hat tricks with nine. She led the team with 2.53 goals per game, 3.24 points per game and 1.41 caused turnovers per game. She ranked fourth in the ACC in caused turnovers per game and fifth with 2.41 ground balls per game.

Also a team captain, Howell led the ACC in ground balls per game, scooping up 2.88 each contest. The senior led the Cardinals with 46 total ground balls this season and her 128 career ground balls rank third in program history. Her 1.06 caused turnovers per game and her 2.44 draw controls per game ranked second on the team.

Two Cardinals Earn All-ACC Honors

For the third consecutive season, the University of Louisville lacrosse team had multiple players named to the All-ACC team. Both Caroline Blalock and Emily Howell earned second team honors.

In addition to leading the Cardinals in seven statistical categories, Blalock boasts a career-high of five goals, which she notched in the Cardinals' game against Robert Morris. She also scored four goals six times throughout the season against Marquette, Butler, Coastal Carolina, Duke, Mercer, and Virginia. Additionally, she was voted ILWomen National Rookie of the Week following her four-goal performance against Virginia.

Howell had a standout final season for the Cardinals, earning a slot on the All-ACC team for the first time throughout her four years. As the defensive leader for the Cards, she not only ranks third in program history with 128 ground balls, but also tied for third all-time in a single game with seven ground balls against Boston College.

Hat Trick Heaven

The Cardinals tallied a total of 30 hat tricks in 2018 coming from seven different players. Tessa Chad and Caroline Blalock combined to score 85 goals and 17 hat tricks on the season. Blalock led the Cards with nine hat tricks, followed by Chad with eight. Also logging hat tricks were Madison Hoover with four, Jillian Balog and Julia Wood with three, Ally Hall with two, and Alex McNicholas with one.

Emily Howell Selected in UWLX College Draft

Standout defender Emily Howell was selected in the ninth round of the UWLX College Draft by the Boston Storm. Howell was one of just 63 players across the country to be drafted.

The United Women's Lacrosse League is a Boston-based professional women's lacrosse league founded in 2016 by Digit Murphy and Aronda Kirby. Also known as UWLX, the league features four teams in major sports markets: the Baltimore Ride, the Boston Storm, the Long

Island Sound and the Philadelphia Force

Beginning the Teeter Era

Head coach Scott Teeter came to Louisville after compiling a 145-120 record in 15 seasons at Canisius, becoming just the second head coach in the history of the Louisville lacrosse program. He currently holds a career record of 151-131.

Teeter has also served as head coach of the Canadian Under-19 National Team since 2009. He guided the team to a bronze-medal showing during the 2011 championship in Hannover, Germany, before earning the country's first women's field lacrosse title at the 2015 FIL World Championship in Edinburgh, Scotland. In 2017, he led the Canadian National team to a pair of silver medals, both at the FIL World Cup held in England and the World Games in Poland.

Cardinals Excel in the Classroom

The IWLCA named Louisville as one of 308 schools across Division I, II, III, and NAIA as a IWLCA Zag Sports Academic Honor Squad for the 2016-17 academic year. Louisville, which has earned the award for the seventh-straight year, was one of seven ACC squads that qualified for the honor.

Louisville's Emily Howell, Casey Madura and Julia Wood were named to the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Association's Academic Honor Roll. Howell, Madura and Wood join 402 student-athletes from 102 different institutions on the 2017 IWLCA Zag Sports Division I Academic Honor Roll.

Record-Breaking Games

The Cards cracked into the top-10 in the team record books on multiple occasions throughout the season. In the win over Mercer, Louisville scored a collective 21 goals to tie for the third highest goal total in program history. In the victory, the Cards also went on a 13-0 scoring run, which checks in at No. 4 in the unanswered goals category.

Additionally, Louisville put together a strong performance in their 20-4 rout of Butler. The Cards logged 11 assists in the victory, which ties for third all-time in a single game. The 20 goals and 31 points scored also ranked among the top-10 performances in program history. The Cardinals closed the game on a 10-0 run, blanking the Bulldogs for the entirety of the second half.

Stacking Up Against the ACC

In one of the toughest leagues in NCAA Division I, the Cards finished second among the league in two statistical categories. Louisville averaged 18.82 groundballs per game and 8.71 caused turnovers per game, just .05 behind Boston College.
